CORPORATE DISCLOSURE POLICIES & PROCEDURES (“CDPP”)

1. Purpose and objectives of the CDPP Document

This CDPP Document sets out pertinent policies and procedures to assist and guide the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sealink International Berhad (“Sealink” or the “Company”) in relation to the Company’s disclosure of corporate information and activities to shareholders, other stakeholders and regulators, such as Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“Bursa Malaysia”) and the Securities Commission of Malaysia (“Securities Commission”). The CDPP are also aimed to assist the Board in furnishing information which is comprehensive and accurate and is made on a timely basis without any bias to selective disclosure.

The key objectives of the CDPP are as follows:

- a) to ensure compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements on disclosure of material information;
- b) to formalise disclosure policies, guidelines and procedures, and as well as to adopt a consistent approach on disclosure practices throughout the Company and all its subsidiaries (the “Group”);
- c) to provide guidance to the Board, Management, officers and employees on the Group’s disclosure requirements and practices; and
- d) to enable the persons to whom this CDPP Document applies understand their obligations in preserving information integrity and confidentiality.

This CDPP Document has been developed taking into consideration pertinent chapters of the Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia (“Listing Requirements”), promulgations of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2021 (“MCCG 2021”) and the Corporate Disclosure Guide (“CDG”) published by Bursa Malaysia.

2. Scope of application

The CDPP apply to all Directors, Management, employees and Authorised Spokesperson(s) of the Group with regard to handling and disclosing material information, and address the following:

- a) documents filed with, and announcements made to, Bursa Malaysia, Securities Commission and other regulators or authorities, written statements made in the Company’s annual report, financial statements, quarterly reports, press releases, letters, circular to shareholders, electronic mail communication and information on the Company’s corporate website; and
- b) oral statements made in group and individual meetings, telephone conversations, interviews and press conferences with financial analysts, investors and media.

3. Dissemination of the CDPP

Copies of this CDPP Document shall be made available to all Directors, Management, employees and Authorised Spokesperson(s) of the Group via the internal website of the Company to enable accessibility by all. For this purpose, they shall be notified of this Document, its accessibility and, in particular, when significant amendments thereto are made.

4. Administration of the CDPP

The Board is ultimately responsible for pertinent policies and procedures incorporated in this CDPP Document and for its effective implementation. The Board delegates the administration and implementation of the CDPP to the Executive Director(s) of the Company, who are assisted by the Company Secretary.

5. Disclosure Authorisation

5.1. The authority for announcements to Bursa Malaysia and Securities Commission is vested in the Board of Directors. The authority for other disclosure of material corporate information and activities relating to the Group, as delegated by the Board, is vested in the Executive Director(s) of the Company.

5.2. The Executive Director(s), who is assisted by the Company Secretary, shall be responsible for the following:

- a) determining whether information constitutes material information within the ambit of the Listing Requirements;
- b) ensuring timely disclosure of material information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, in particular, the Listing Requirements and stipulations of the Securities Commission;
- c) approving the contents to be published in the Investor Relations section of the Company's corporate website;
- d) responding to rumours or reports and unusual market activity as provided under Paragraphs 10 and 11 respectively of the CDPP Document; and
- e) monitoring adherence to the CDPP, reviewing, assessing and implementing appropriate remedial actions in relation to any violation of the CDPP.

6. Authorised Spokespersons

6.1 The Authorised Spokespersons for the Group shall be the Executive Chairman / Executive Director and/or his delegate(s).

6.2 The Authorised Spokespersons:

- a) may provide clarification on information which the Company has released to Bursa Malaysia but must not comment on any material information which has not been released to Bursa Malaysia; and
- b) may attend to all enquiries from media, investment community or other external parties.

6.3 When communicating with the media, the investment community or other external parties, the Authorised Spokespersons shall exercise care to ensure comments which may spur speculation or rumours are not made.

7 Material information and immediate disclosures

7.1 Material information

Material information, in accordance with Paragraph 9.03(2) of the Listing Requirements, information is considered material, if it is reasonably expected to have a material effect on the following:

- a) the price, value or market activity of any of the Company's securities; or
- b) the decision of a holder of securities of the Company or an investor in determining his/ her choice of action, and may include information which:
 - i) concerns the Company's assets and liabilities, business, financial condition or prospects;
 - ii) relates to dealings with employees, supplies, customers and others;
 - iii) relates to any event affecting the present or potential dilution of the rights or interests of Company's securities; or
 - iv) relates to any event materially affecting the size of the public holding of its securities.

7.2 Immediate disclosure of material information

The Executive Director(s) shall exercise judgment in determining whether information in question is material and requiring immediate disclosure.

Reference shall be made to Appendix A for events requiring immediate disclosure to Bursa Malaysia and Appendix B for examples of events which may require immediate disclosure.

7.3 Withholding of material information

7.3.1 The Company may, in exceptional circumstances, temporarily refrain from publicly disclosing material information, provided that complete confidentiality is maintained. Where material information is withheld, the Company must refrain from delaying disclosure for an unreasonable period of time since it is unlikely that confidentiality can be maintained beyond a short period of time.

7.3.2 The exceptional circumstances where disclosures can be withheld are limited and constitute an infrequent exception to the normal requirement of immediate public disclosure. In cases of doubt, the presumption must always be in favour of disclosure.

7.3.3 Paragraph 9.05(3) of the Listing Requirements provides the following exceptional circumstances where disclosure may be temporarily withheld:

- a) when immediate disclosure would prejudice the ability of the Company to pursue its corporate objectives;
- b) when the facts are in a state of flux and a more appropriate moment for disclosure is imminent; or
- c) where the laws prohibit the disclosure of such information.

7.4 Maintaining confidentiality

7.4.1 Whenever material information is being temporarily withheld, the Company must ensure that strictest confidentiality is maintained, including limiting the number of persons having access to the material information and ensuring security of all confidential documents.

7.4.2 In the event that material information is or is believed to have been inadvertently disclosed to third parties or where the material information has become generally available through the media or otherwise the Company must immediately announce such information to Bursa Malaysia.

8 Monitoring of market activity and making of announcements

8.1 During a period where information is withheld from the public, the market activity of the Company must be closely monitored. The Company must immediately announce the information withheld to Bursa in accordance with these requirements, if the following circumstances occurs:

- (a) unusual market activity in the Company's securities which signifies that a "leak" of the information may have occurred;
- (b) rumours or reports concerning the information have appeared; or
- (c) where the Company learns that there are signs that insider trading may be taking place.

9 Public dissemination

9.1 The Company must release material information to the public in a manner designed to obtain its fullest possible public dissemination.

9.2 The Company must ensure that no disclosure of material information is made on an individual or selective basis to analysts, shareholders, journalists or other persons unless such information has previously been fully disclosed and disseminated to the public. If material information is inadvertently disclosed at any meetings with analysts, shareholders, journalists or others, it must be publicly disseminated as promptly as possible.

9.3 There may be limited circumstances where selective disclosure of material information is necessary, for example where the company is undertaking a corporate exercise or to facilitate a due diligence exercise. In such circumstances, the company must ensure that:

- (a) the disclosure is restricted to only relevant persons;
- (b) the strictest confidentiality is maintained; and
- (c) the requirement in Paragraph 8 above are complied with.

9.4 If the disclosure is made immediately before or during the trading hours, Bursa Malaysia may impose a temporary halt or suspension in trading of the Company's securities to facilitate dissemination and evaluation of the information released.

9.5 Any public disclosure of material information must be made by an announcement first to Bursa or simultaneously to Bursa Malaysia, the press and newswire services. For the avoidance of doubt, Company must not release any material information to the media even on an embargoed basis until it has given the information to Bursa Malaysia.

10 Clarification, confirmation or denial of rumours or reports

10.1 Whenever the Company becomes aware of any rumour or report, true or false, that contains material information, the Company must make due enquiry and immediately publicly clarify, confirm or deny the rumor or report.

10.2 For the purpose of Subparagraph 10.1 above, the Company must publicly clarify any rumour or report circulated by any means including by word-of-mouth, an article published in a newspaper, newswire, magazine, a broker's market report or any other publication.

10.3 Response to rumour or report

10.3.1 The Company must respond to a rumour or report by making an immediate announcement to Bursa as follows:

- (a) if the rumour or report contains erroneous material information, a denial or clarification of the rumour or report together with facts sufficient to support the denial or to clarify any misleading aspects of the rumour or report. The Company must also take reasonable effort to bring the announcement to the attention of the party that initially distributed the erroneous rumour or report; and
- (b) if the rumour or report contains material information that is correct, a confirmation of the rumour or report together with the facts of the matter and an indications of the state of negotiations or of corporate plans in the rumoured area. Such announcements are essential even if the matter has yet to be presented to the Company's board of directors for consideration.

10.3.2 In the case of a rumour or report predicting future sales, earnings or other quantitative data, Company is not ordinarily required to provide a response. However, if such a report is manifestly based on or contains erroneous information, or is wrongly attributed to the Company, the Company must:

- (a) respond promptly to the supposedly factual elements of the rumour or report as required under paragraph 10; and
- (b) include in the announcement, a statement to the effect that the Company itself has made no such prediction and it is unaware of any facts that would justify making such a prediction.

11 Response to unusual market activity

11.1 Where unusual price movement, trading activity, or both ("unusual market activity") occurs, the Company must immediately undertake due enquiry to seek the cause of unusual market activity in its securities. The Company must consider, in particular, where there is any information concerning the Group which would account for the unusual market activity that:

- (a) has recently been publicly disclosed;

- (b) has not been publicly disclosed, in which case the unusual market activity may signify that a “leak” of information; or
 - (c) is the subject matter of a rumour or a report.
- 11.2 If the Company determines that the unusual market activity results from material information that has already been publicly disclosed, the Company is generally not required to make further announcement. However, if the unusual market activity indicates that such information may have been misinterpreted, the Company must issue a clarifying announcement to Bursa Malaysia.
- 11.3 If the unusual market activity results from a “leak” of previously undisclosed information, the Company must publicly disclose the information in question in accordance with the Listing Requirements.
- 11.4 If the unusual market activity results from a rumour or report, the Company must comply with Paragraph 10 and 11;
- 11.5 If the cause of the unusual market activity cannot be determined, the Company must announce that there have been no undisclosed developments which would account for the unusual market activity.

12 Unwarranted promotional disclosure activity

The Company must refrain from any form of promotional disclosure activity which may mislead investors or cause unwarranted price movement and activity in the Company’s securities. Such activity includes news releases, public announcements, predictions, reports or advertisements, which are not justified by actual developments concerning the Company, exaggerated, flamboyant, overstated or over-zealous.

13 Insider trading

- 13.1 The Company and parties who may be regarded as insiders must be fully aware of the provisions of the Capital Markets and Services Act, 2007 and the Companies Act, 2016.
- 13.2 A person is an “insider” if that person:
- (a) being an Employee, Officer or Board member of the Group or through having access to the information by virtue of his or her employment, office or profession;
 - (b) possesses information that is not generally available which, on becoming generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or the value of securities; and
 - (c) knows or ought reasonably to know that the information is not generally available.
- 13.3 Insiders must not trade on the basis of material information which is not known to the investing public.
- 13.4 Insiders must not tip off or inform another person of such material information, irrespective of whether such person intends to trade on such information.
- 13.5 Insiders are prohibited from dealing with the Company’s securities while in possession of such material information which has not been previously disclosed, until after such material information has been publicly disclosed.

13.6 Closed Period

- 13.6.1 “Closed Period” is defined as a period commencing thirty (30) calendar days before the targeted date of announcement up to the date of the announcement of the Company’s quarterly results to Bursa Malaysia.
- 13.6.2 During Closed Periods, all Authorised Spokesperson are prohibited from commenting on the current period earnings and financial assumptions. Communications must be limited to commenting on publicly available or non-material information.
- 13.6.3 All Authorised Spokespersons must also avoid initiating meetings, whether in person or by phone, with the media, investment community, and other external parties, on items significant to investors, other than responding to unsolicited enquiries concerning factual information.
- 13.6.4 The Company may continue to participate in investment meetings and conferences organised by other parties, as long as material information which has not been publicly disclosed is kept confidential and undisclosed.
- 13.6.5 From time to time, advice relating to trading restrictions in the Company’s securities, in accordance with the provisions of the Listing Requirements, shall be sought from the Company Secretaries or external parties, if deemed expedient.

14 Forward-looking information

- 14.1 The Company may provide forward-looking information to convey its future direction to the public, in order to enable reasoned market valuation of the Company’s securities, provided that such forward-looking information does not constitute undisclosed material information/ future earnings and has been reviewed and/ or approved by the Executive Directors or the Board. Such information may include prospects, revenue, profits estimates, forecasts, projections or internal targets or key performance indicators which are based on historical and publicly disclosed data.
- 14.2 All documents containing forward-looking information shall be accompanied by a disclaimer cautioning investors of the risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those envisaged in the forward-looking information. When making oral representation on forward-looking information, the Authorised Spokespersons shall take reasonable care and include such disclaimer to the same effect.

15 Dealings with the media, investment community and other external parties

- 15.1 Only the Authorised Spokespersons are permitted to participate in briefing sessions, meet with, initiate contacts with, or respond to calls from, the media, investment community or other external parties, including other market professionals on behalf of the Company.
- 15.2 The Authorised Spokespersons speaking at conferences, briefings or interviews must submit the materials information, including presentation materials, hand-outs and speaking notes, at the sessions to, and obtain approval/ clearance from, the Executive Directors before the actual conference, briefing or interview.

- 15.3 Subject to its applicability, the Company may make available on its corporate website the materials and/ or information presented or used during analyst briefings.
- 15.4 In communications with the media, investment community and other external parties, the Company's Authorised Spokespersons shall only provide factual and non-speculative information which has been reviewed and/ or approved by the Executive Director(s).
- 15.5 In the event that material information which has not been previously disclosed is inadvertently disclosed at communication sessions with the media, investment community or any external parties, the Authorised Spokespersons shall immediately inform the Executive Director(s) and the Company shall immediately make full, complete and accurate disclosure to Bursa Malaysia and the public in accordance with the provisions of the Listing Requirements and this CDPP Document.
- 15.6 When the answering of unexpected questions involves, or may involve, the disclosure of previously undisclosed material information during communication sessions with the media, investment community and any other external parties, the Authorised Spokespersons shall decline to respond to the questions and, if appropriate, take the questions on notice for further action as determined by the Executive Director(s).

16 Procedures for disclosure of material information

- 16.1 The Board shall manage all the Company's releases of announcement of material information to Bursa Malaysia through the Company Secretarial Department.
- 16.2 The Company Secretary shall draft the announcement to be tabled for the Board's approval.
- 16.3 Prior to the approval of the Board, the Heads of Finance Department and other relevant departments or business units shall be responsible in reviewing and verifying the accuracy of all information, including financial data and information related to their respective departments/ business units, contained in the announcement.
- 16.4 All announcements, apart from administrative announcements as set out below, shall be approved by the Board before they are released to Bursa Malaysia by the Company Secretaries:
 - (i) Any notice relating to substantial shareholder (Section 137/Section 138/Section 139) which the Company has received;
 - (ii) Any notice by Director pursuant to Section 219(1) of the Companies Act, 2016 and Paragraphs 14.08 and 14.09 of the Listing Requirements which the Company has received in relation to the Company's securities listed on Bursa Malaysia (dealings in securities by Directors and principal officers during/ outside closed periods);
